

1992 hatte ich für die
Alcatel SEL AG
ein Paper mit Vortrag auf der Mikrowellen-Konferenz
in Albuquerque,
New Mexico, USA.

Im Anschluß an die
Reise erfolgte ein Urlaub im

"Südwesten der USA"

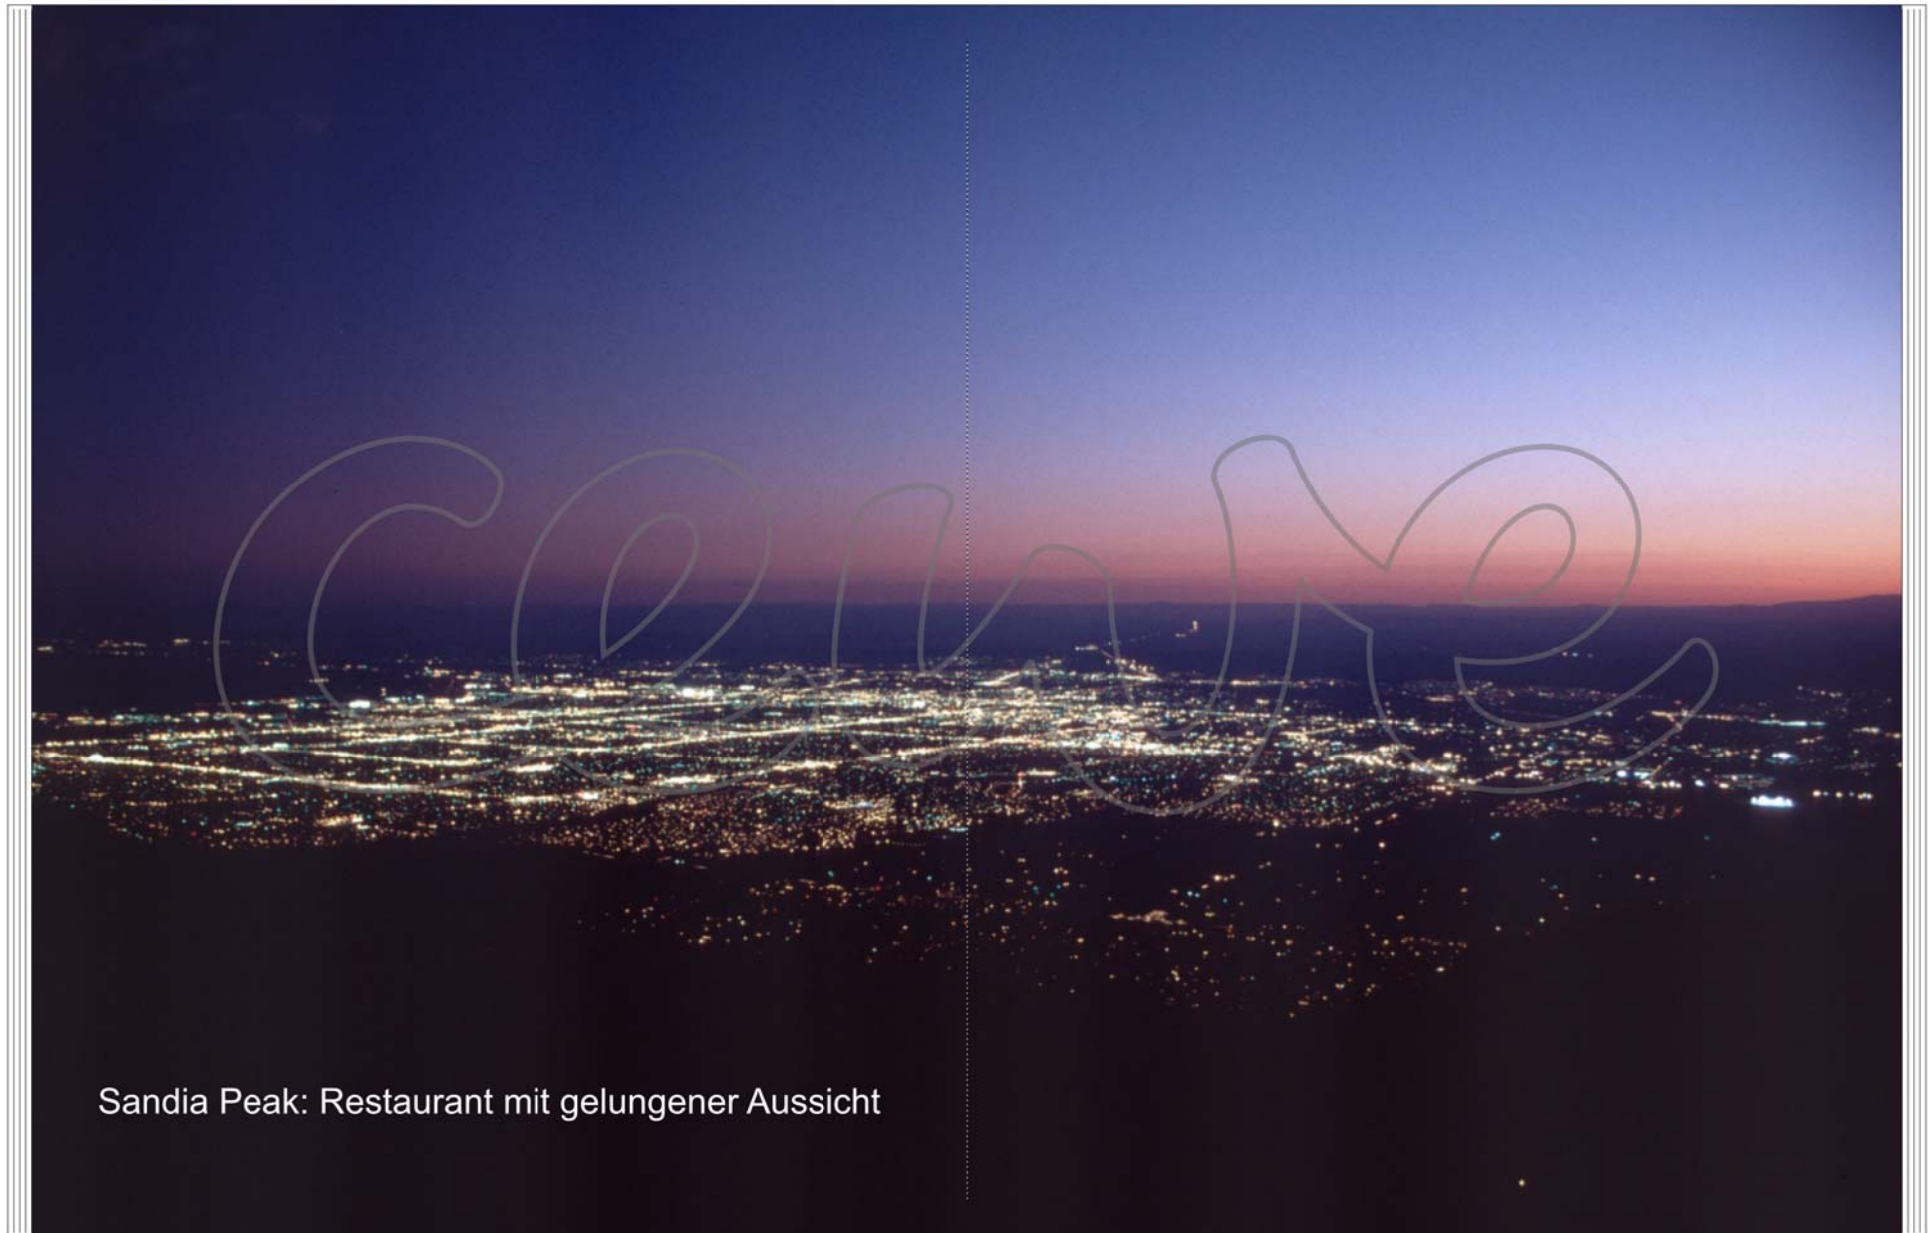

Bahn Stuttgart-Frankfurt, Flug Frankfurt - Dallas - Albuquerque

Rio Grande und Sandia Peak

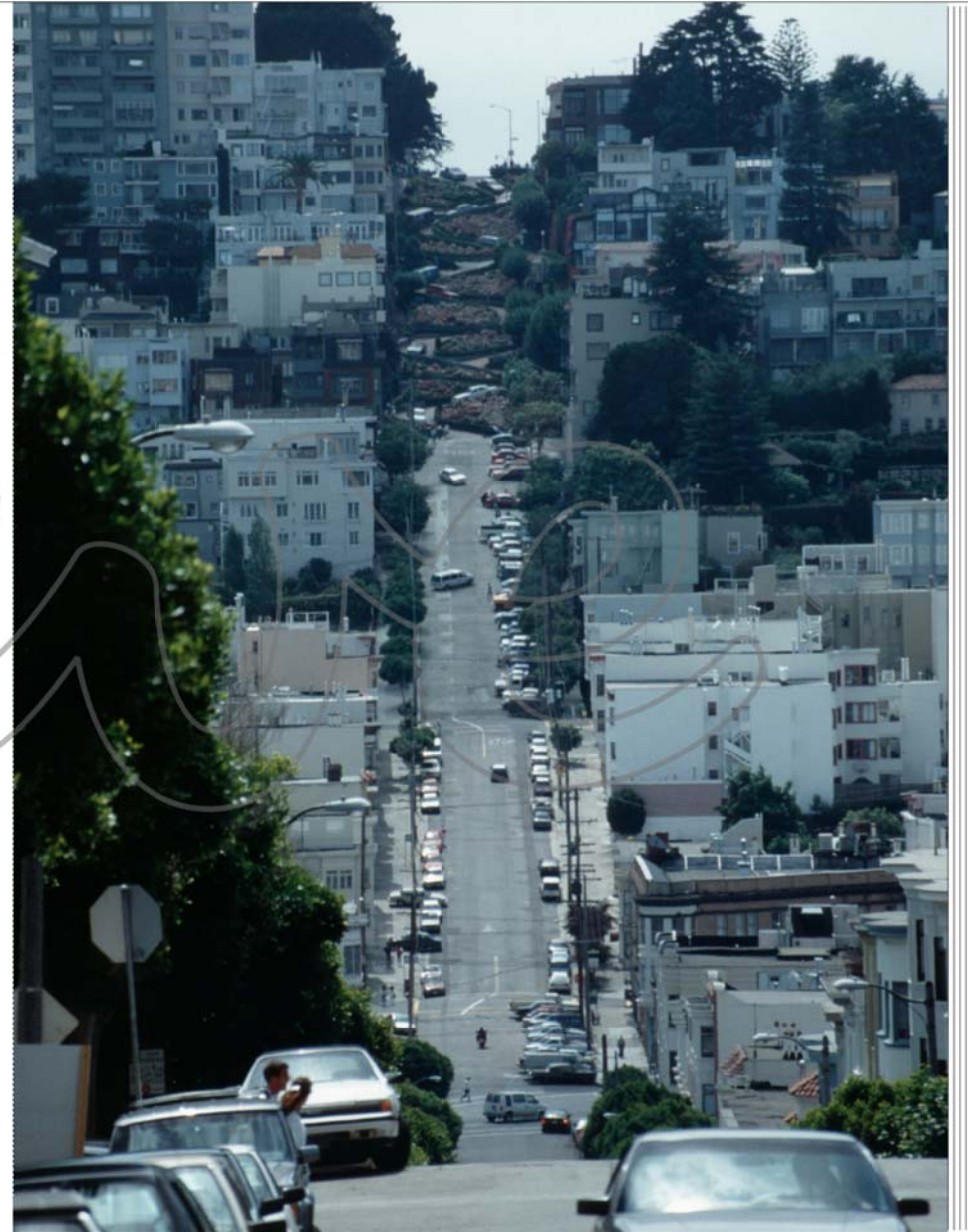

Sandia Peak: Restaurant mit gelungener Aussicht

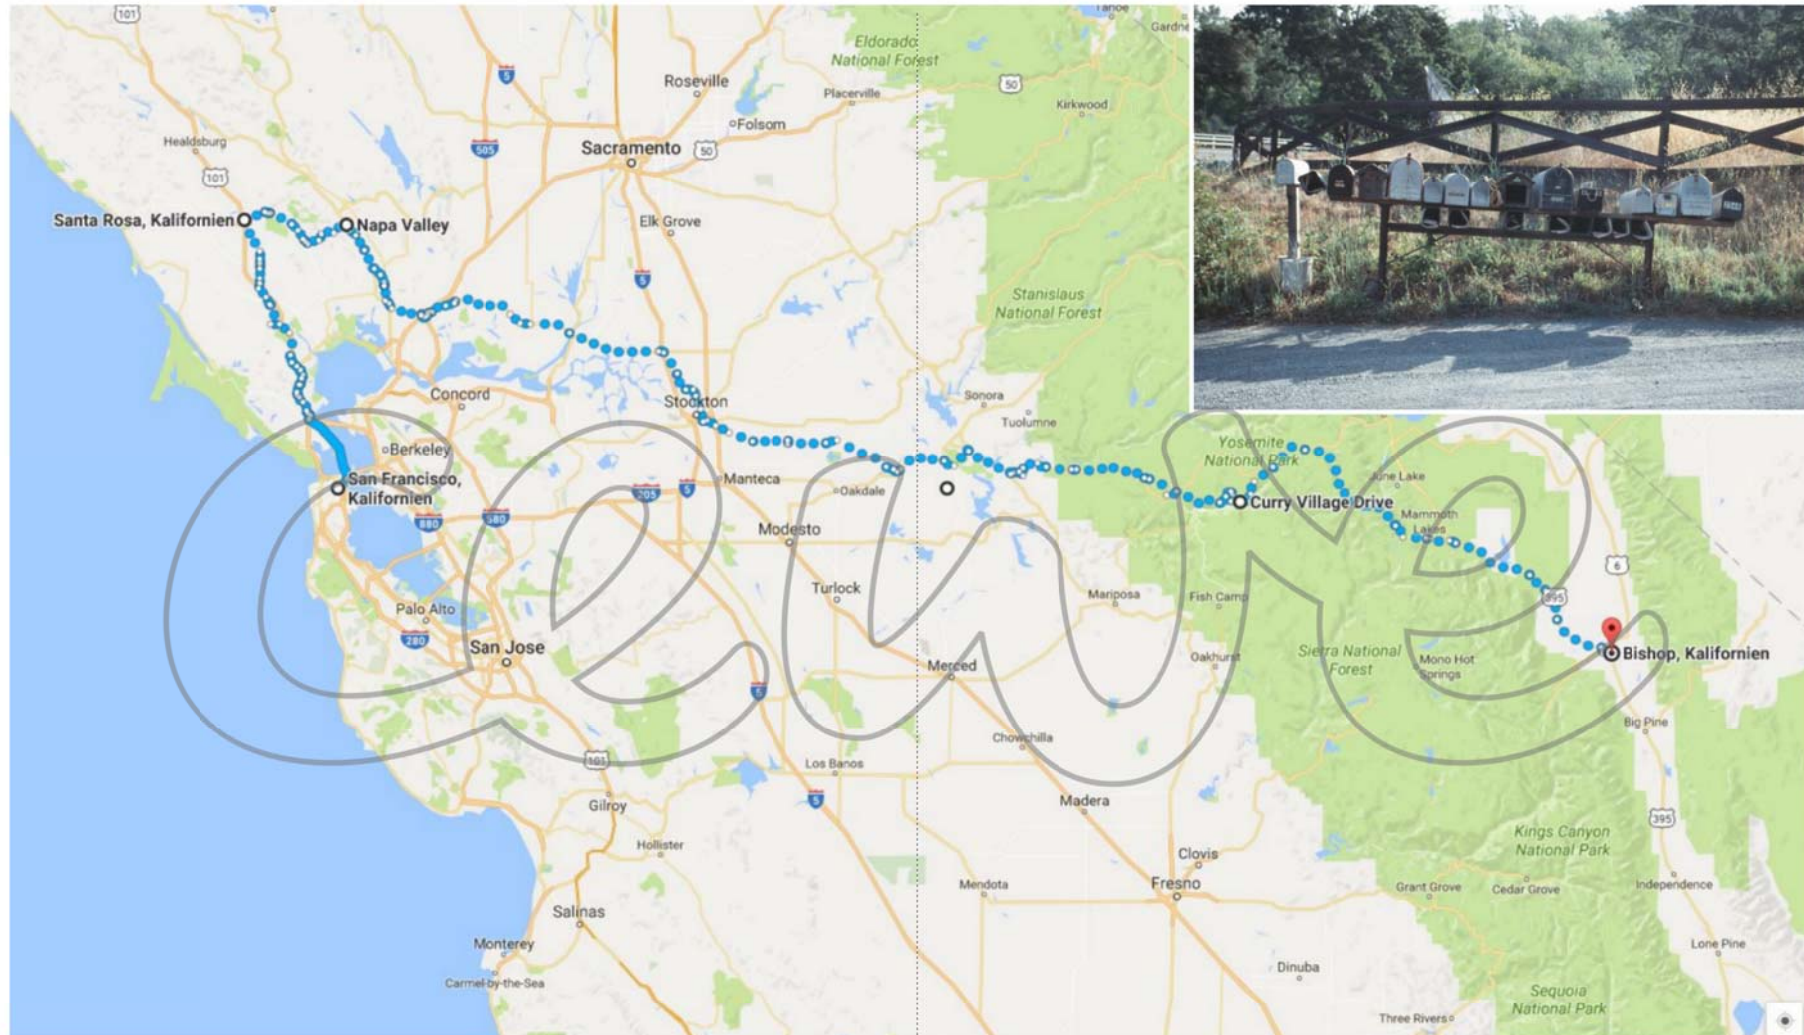

Sonntag, 7.6.92: Gerda fliegt Frankfurt - San Francisco

Dann, Montag den 8.6.92, begann die "Grand Tour": erst nach Hewlett-Packard in Santa Rosa ...

... dann zum Yosemite National Park, später weiter über Bishop in Richtung Death Valley

Wein in Sonoma und Napa Valley, Armstrong Woods

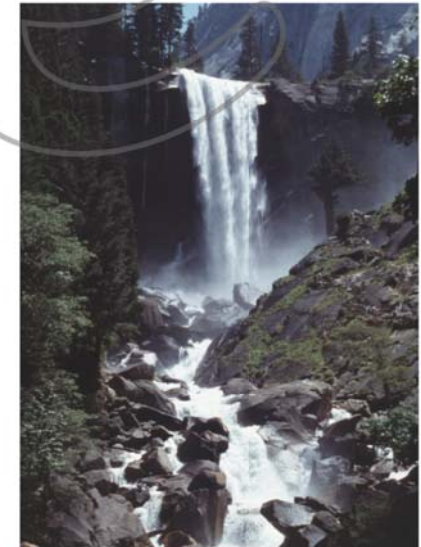

Hitchcocks Bodega Bay ("Die Vögel") und Fort Ross

Yosemite NP: Übernachtung im Zeltlager

Tioga Pass (3000m) über die Sierra Nevada ...

über Bishop ... in Richtung Death Valley

im Death Valley ...

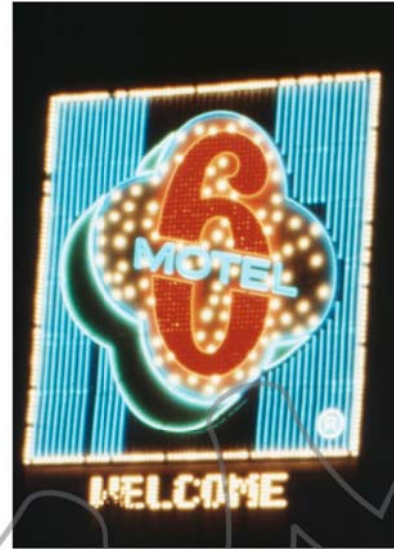

... mit Zabriski Point und Dantes View

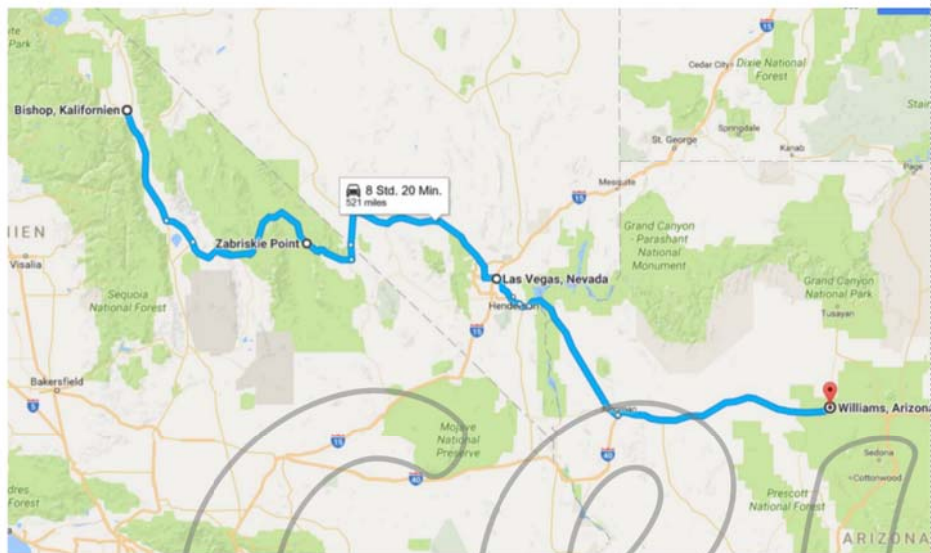

Übernachtungen in Las Vegas im Motel 6

Caesars Palace, Excalibur, The Mirage + Joshua tree

Lake Mead, Hoover-Dam und Route 66 ...

... bis Williams - unserer Basis für den Grand Canyon

erste Eindrücke bei Sonnenuntergang

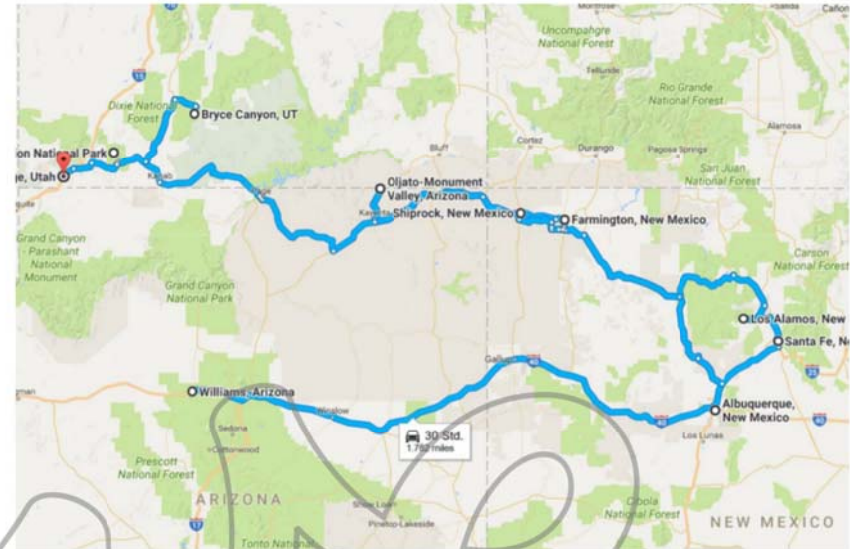

Kaibab Trail

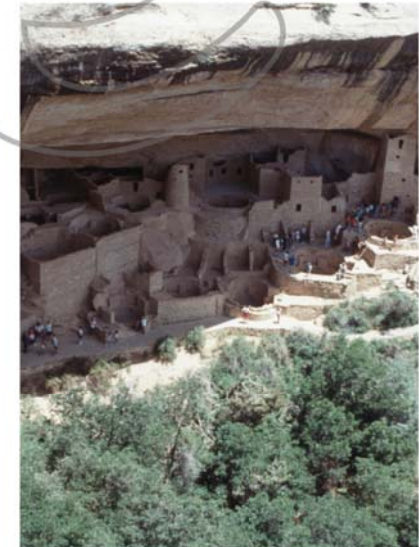

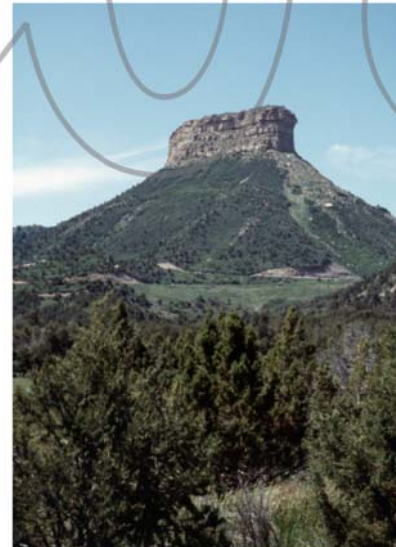

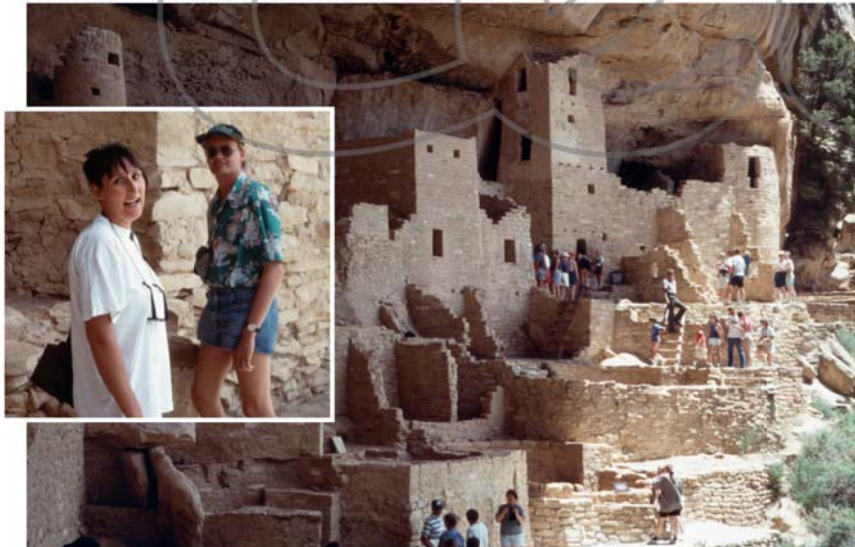

17.6: Fahrt nach Albuquerque, Treffen mit Berthold

Farmington, Mesa Verde, ...

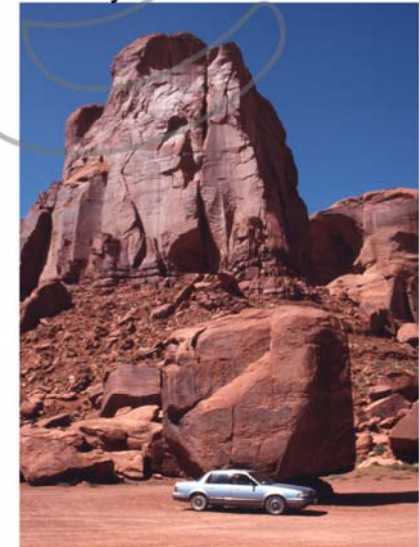

..., Durango, Shiprock, Cortez, Four Corners

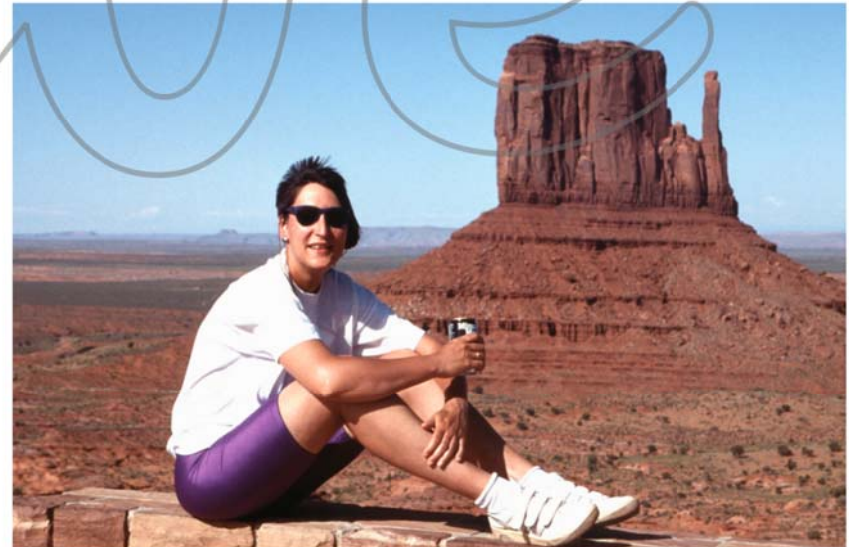

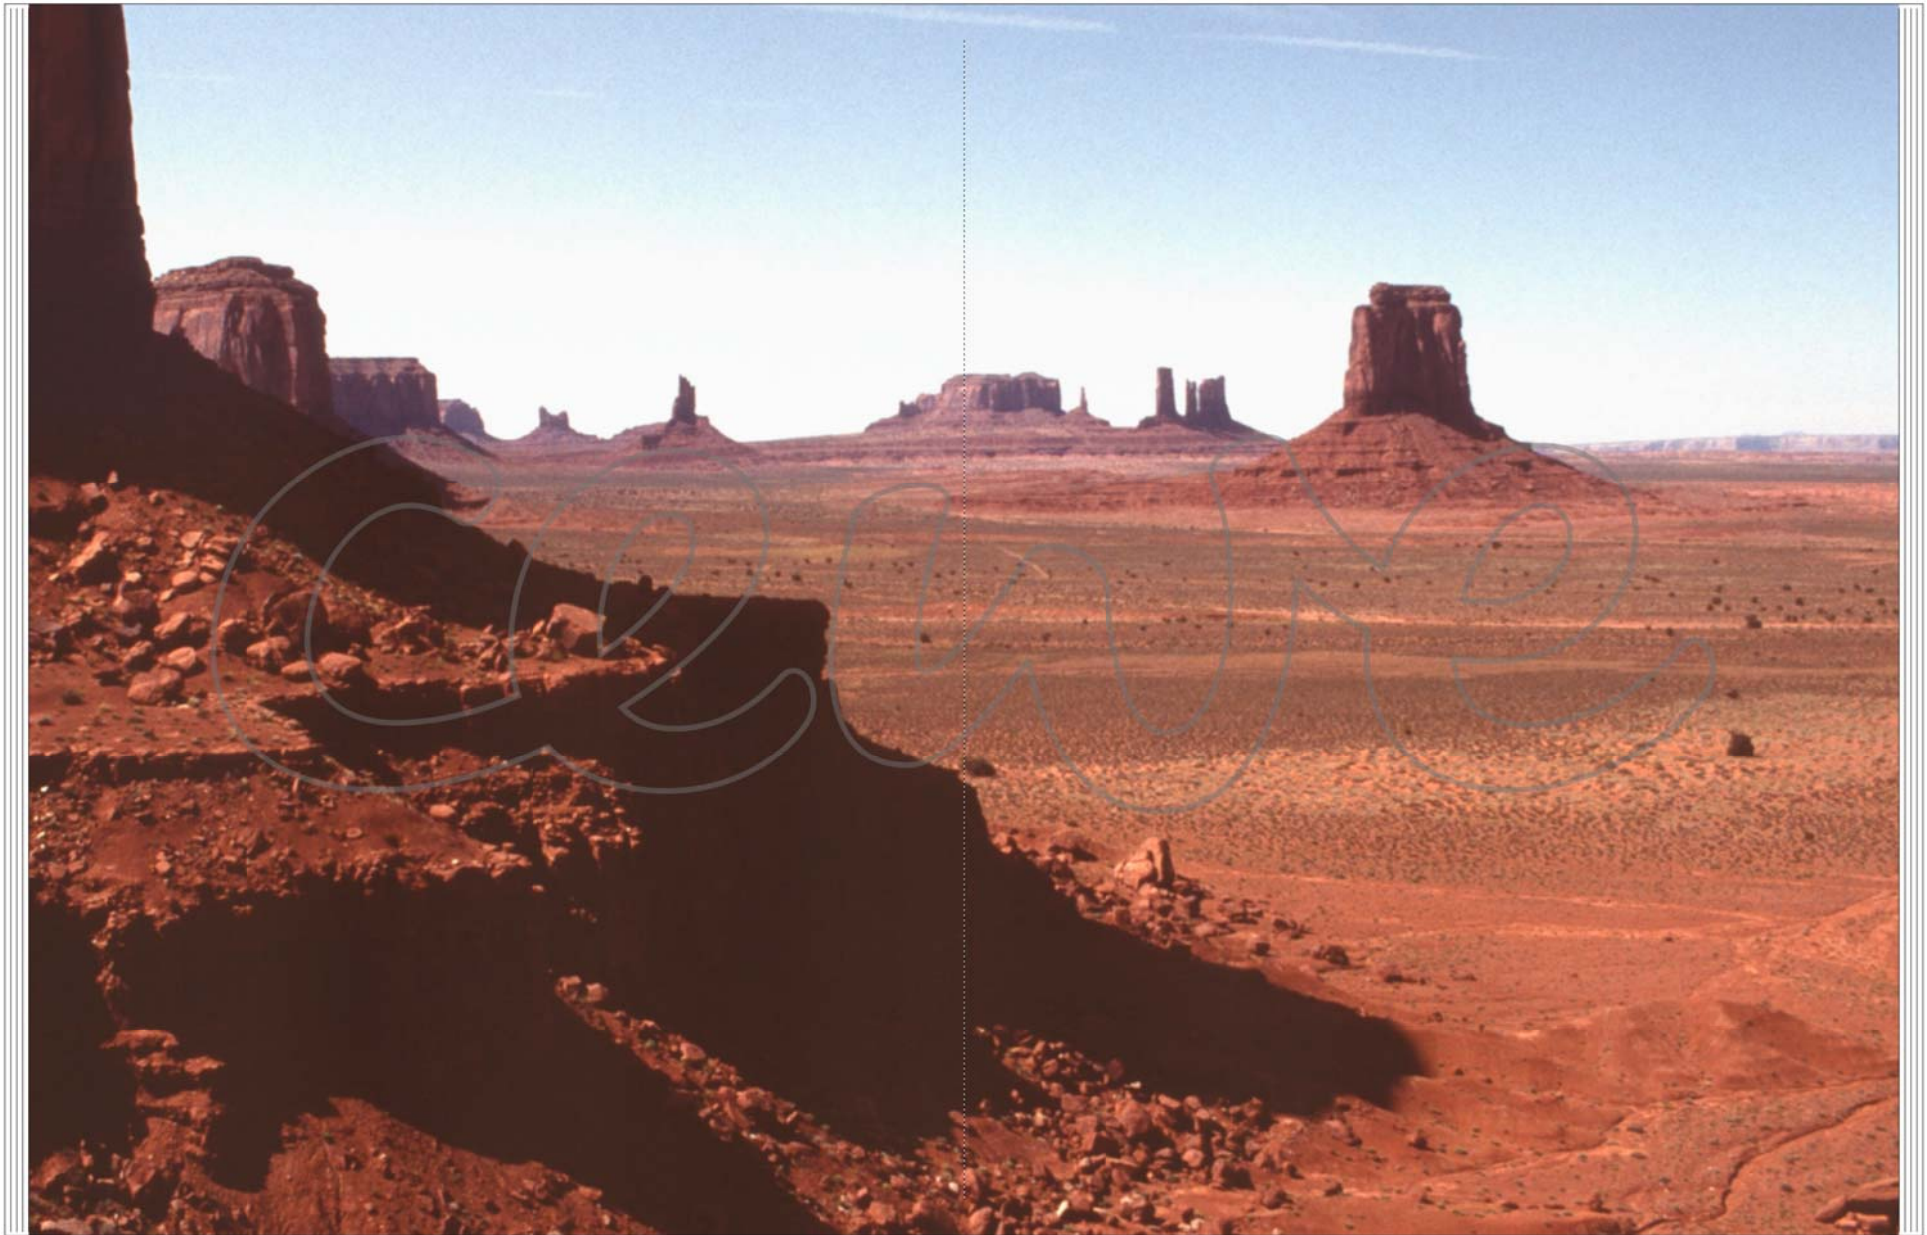

Monument Valley

Physiker am "Atomic Museum"

Petrified Forest und Painted Desert (bei Holbrook)

über Marble Canyon ...

... und Vermillion Cliffs

... zum Bryce Canyon (bei St. George) der Zion NP mit tollen Farben bei Sonnenlicht ...

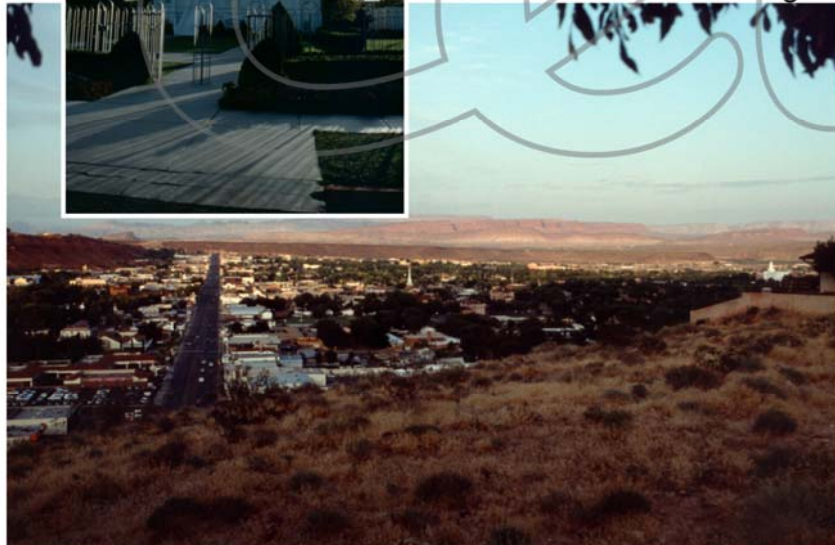

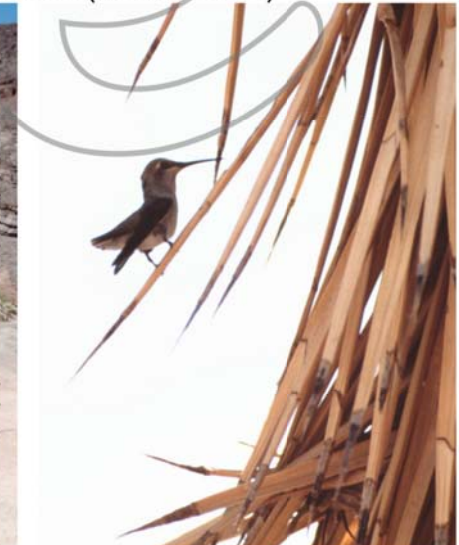

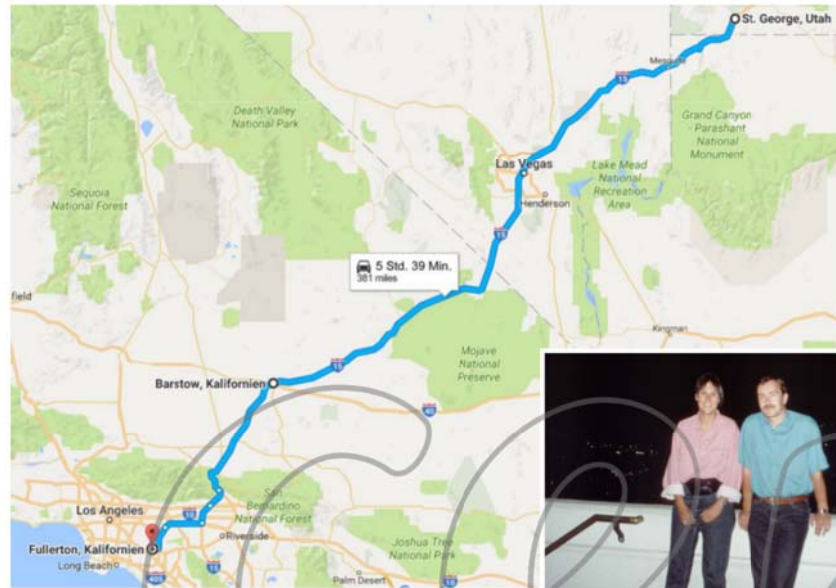

Mormonen in St. George

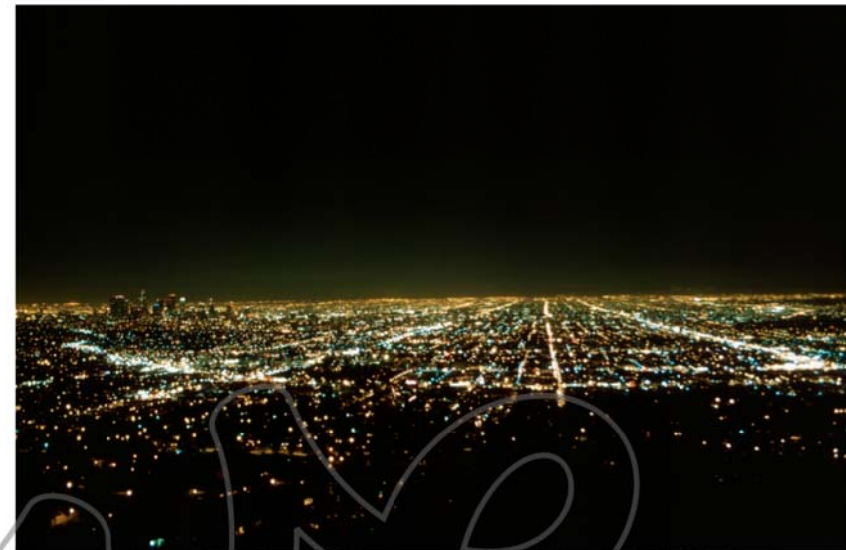

Geisterstadt Calico (bei Barstow)

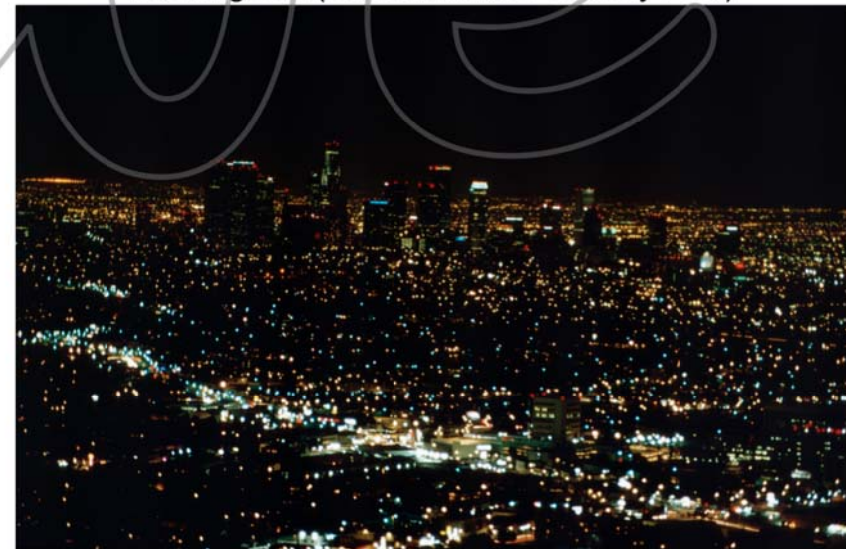

Smog über Los Angeles

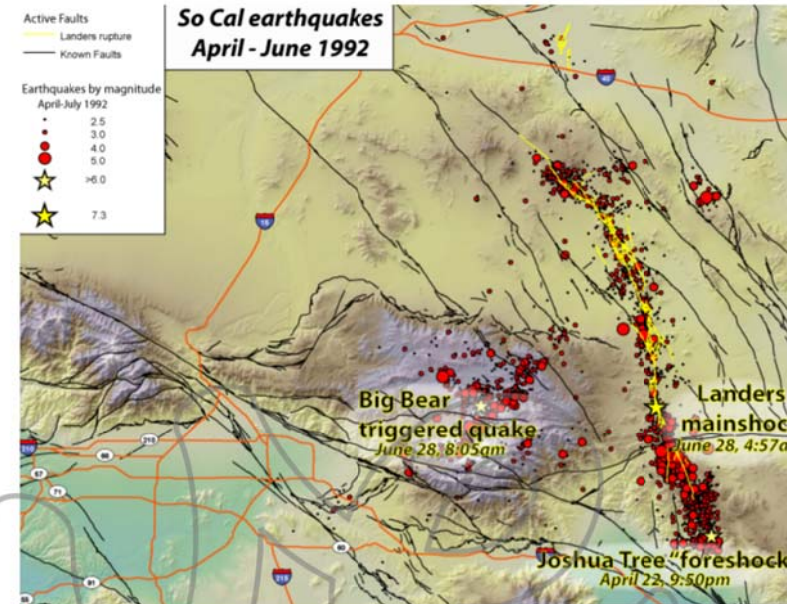

Los Angeles (Observatorium Beverly Hills)

Sonntag, 28. Juni 1992, 4.58 Uhr PDT:

in Fullerton, Los Angeles im Motel 6:
"We survived the Landers Quake!"
Stärke 7,4 (Richter-Skala)

Disneyland

Long Beach mit Queen Mary

Hollywood, Malibu, Santa Barbara

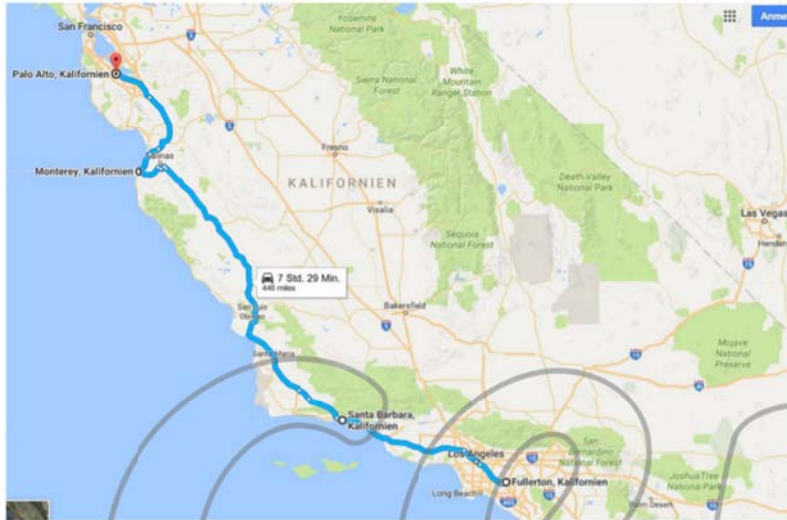

Highway No. 1, Hearst Castle

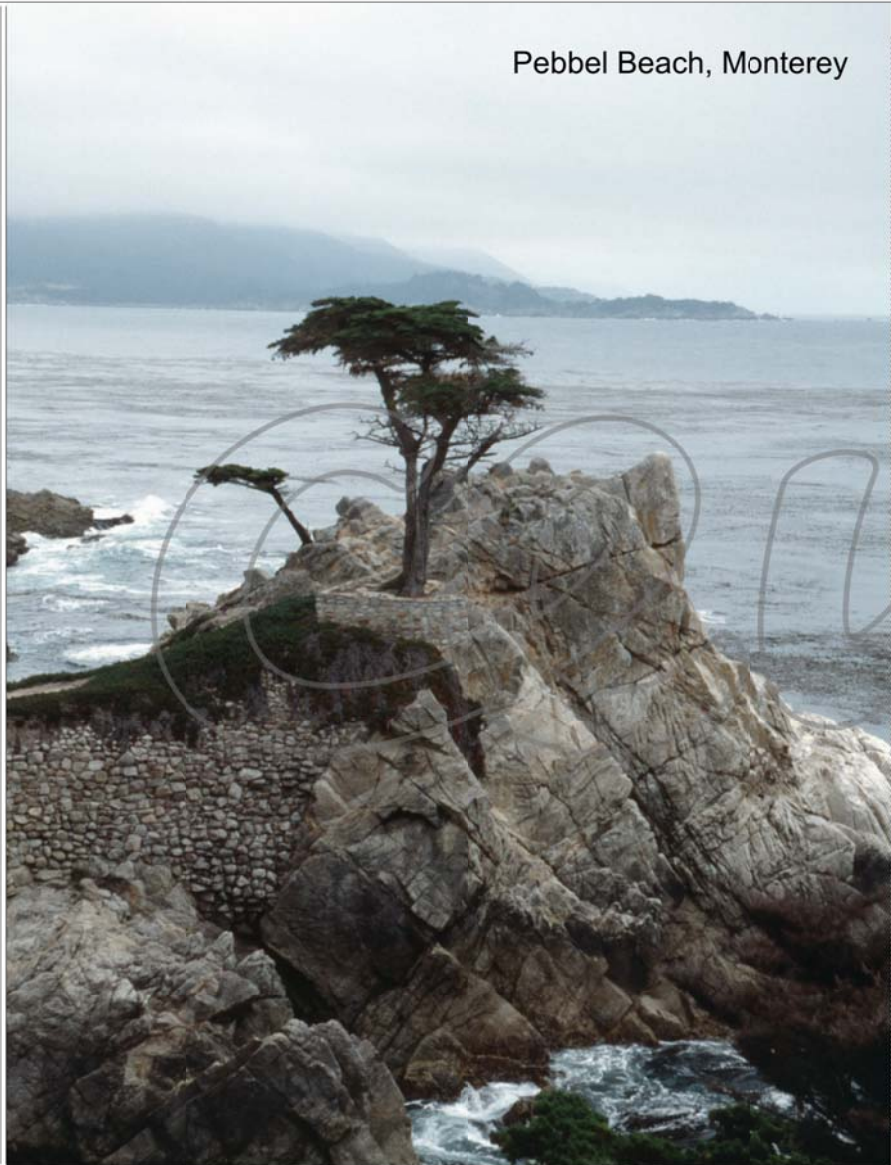

Palo Alto, Stanford University

Buick Century von Alamo, 6 Zylinder mit 3,3 Liter
 $13.972 - 7.923 = 6.049$ Meilen = 9.735 km
Abgabe und Rückflug am 04.07.1992

Pebbel Beach, Monterey

cewe